

Canadian Livestock Records Corporation
CANADIAN SPORT HORSE ASSOCIATION

RULES OF ENTRY

1 EXPLANATION: An inspected and approved animal (for the purpose of the Association) is one that has been inspected and approved by a person duly authorized by the Association to inspect and reject or approve animals for identification in the Canadian Sport Horse Association Stud book.

2 A certificate stating that a designated animal has been inspected and approved, signed by the secretary of the Association, shall be acceptable evidence that the animal in question has been inspected and approved.

3 The Association shall accept foals for identification that are the result of an Artificial Insemination breeding, including the use of transported semen. The Association shall prepare regulations pertaining to such breeding.

a. ELIGIBILITY OF ANIMALS UNDER PREVIOUS RULES: Rule A animals shall be considered the equivalent to F1 animals in the Foundation Stallion Book. F.S. mares and Rule B mares shall be considered the equivalent of those animals in the Appendix Mare Book. Rule C and D animals shall be considered equivalent to F1. Animals registered or identified under “other rules” shall be given the appropriate status based on their ancestry.

RULES OF ENTRY INTO THE FIVE (4) BOOKS OF THE CANADIAN SPORT HORSE ASSOCIATION (as outlined in section 15.1 of the constitution) SHALL BE AS FOLLOWS:

4 FOUNDATION STALLION BOOK: Will include any inspected and approved stallions, other than CSH, three (3) years of age and over, registered in a stud book recognized by the Association and Agriculture Canada. Approved stallions shall be numbered and prefixed by the letter “S” to indicate inclusion in said book.

5 APPENDIX MARE BOOK: Will include any inspected and approved mare, three years of age or over, shall be eligible for recordation as an “Appendix” mare. Certificates for Appendix mares shall be numbered and prefixed by the letter “A” to indicate inclusion in said book.

6 AUXILIARY STUD BOOK: The following animals shall be eligible for inclusion into the Auxiliary Stud Book and shall be numbered and prefixed where appropriate as indicated:

MALE AND FEMALE OFFSPRING OF:

- A) APPENDIX MARES AND APPROVED AND LICENSED FOUNDATION STALLION. SUCH HORSES SHALL HAVE F1 STATUS. ALL SUCH FEMALE HORSES SHALL BE PREFIXED BY THE LETTERS “AA”. ALL “AA” FEMALES MUST BE INSPECTED AT THREE (3) YEARS OF AGE AND APPROVED BEFORE BEING GRANTED BREEDING APPROVAL.
- B) AN APPENDIX MARE AND AN F1 OR HIGHER CSH STALLION. SUCH HORSES SHALL HAVE F1 STATUS. ALL FEMALE OFFSPRING OF APPENDIX MARES SHALL BE PREFIXED BY THE LETTERS “AA”, AND SHALL BE REQUIRED TO BE INSPECTED AND APPROVED BEFORE BEING GRANTED BREEDING APPROVAL.

C) A FOUNDATION STALLION AND AN APPROVED F1 OR HIGHER (INCLUDING AA) CSH MARE. SUCH HORSES SHALL HAVE F1 STATUS.

D) ANY HORSE WITH F1, F2, F3 STATUS. F1 BEING DEFINED AS AN A), B), AND C) OF SECTION 19.6 OF THIS CONSTITUTION. F2 BEING DEFINED AS THE OFFSPRING OF TWO F1 PARENTS, OR ONE F1 AND ONE F2, F3, F4. PARENT. F3 BEING DEFINED AS THE OFFSPRING OF TWO F2 PARENTS OR ONE F2 PARENT AND ONE F3, F4, F5 PARENT. (Generation status increases one higher than the status of the lowest parental generation. For example, an F1 stallion bred to an F4 mare will produce an F2 foal).

7 MAIN STUD BOOK: THE FOLLOWING HORSES ARE ELIGIBLE FOR IDENTIFICATION IN SAID BOOK:

A) ALL F4 OR HIGHER STATUS MALE AND FEMALE CANADIAN SPORT HORSES.

8 ALL MALE HORSES MUST BE INSPECTED AND APPROVED AT MINIMUM AGE OF THREE (3) BEFORE BEING GRANTED BREEDING APPROVAL.

9 The Board of Directors may, from time to time and as occasion may require, make regulations regarding the rules of entry if a case of eligibility arises. Proof of four generations and/or of a recognized performance record would be required by individuals seeking entry into the Foundation Stallion Book on the condition that the Board of Directors recognizes the "Good of the Breed".

10 Offspring of Phase I conformation approved Stallions conceived prior to such Stallions completing their Phase II performance criteria are eligible for identification provided they fulfil the criteria set out in Article 19 - Rules of Entry - of this Constitution.

11 When a special case arises as to the eligibility of any animals, the Board of Directors may authorize the identification, providing satisfactory proof is given.

12 Cancellation: Any stallion or mare may be subject to re-inspection if it appears that progeny do not meet required standards. Animal failing to pass re-inspection shall have their future CSHA breeding approval cancelled. Such cancellation shall not affect the eligibility of progeny conceived prior to date of cancellation.

APPLICATION FOR IDENTIFICATION

1. All fees shall be paid to the Accountant, Canadian Livestock Records Corporation and may be sent by postal note, post office money order, express money order, bank money order or certified cheque payable at par in Ottawa, and they shall forthwith be deposited by him to the credit of the Association in a chartered bank selected by the Board of Directors of the Canadian Livestock Record Corporations Board.

2 Application for identification of animals registered in any other Stud Book recognized by this Association, must be accompanied by the official certificate which must show that the animal has been duly transferred to the applicant for identification. If a mare is in foal, in order to identify the produce, a certificate must show the date of service, name and number of the service sire and owner at the time of service.

3 Application for identification of animals must be made by the owner on forms supplied free by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation. All blank spaces must be filled in, in ink, or typewritten, and the application must be signed by the owner at the time of birth, by the breeder and the owner of the service sire.

4 The Canadian Livestock Records Corporation shall supply the Secretary of this Association with a form for inspection purposes which shall contain all information shown on the application for identification. This form shall be certified by the inspector as to whether or not the animal passes inspection and returned to the Secretary who in turn shall forward it to the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation.

5 When an animal is a twin, it shall be so stated when applying for identification, and the sex given of the animal with which it is a twin. Should a twin be entered upon the record without such statement, no subsequent application for entry of animal twin with same shall be accepted.

6 The breeder of an animal is the owner or lessee of the dam at the time she was served. The first owner is the owner of the dam at the time the animal was born.

.7 No two animals shall have the same name. Letters shall not be used as a prefix to a name. Names shall not contain more than thirty letter spaces or characters including numeral affix.

TRANSFERS AND DUPLICATE CERTIFICATES

1 In the case of the sale of an animal, the seller must furnish a certificate of identification in the Canadian Sport Horse Stud Book showing the purchaser's ownership. Refusal to do so on any pretext whatever shall be grounds for his expulsion, if a member, from the Association; if not a member, further applications for identification or transfer shall be refused.

.2 Applications for transfer of ownership must be made on forms supplied by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation, and must give date of sale and date of delivery and in the case of a female if bred, service certificate must be completed. Transfer of ownership will be endorsed by the CLRC following submission of the original certificate, the application for transfer and the appropriate fees.

3 In case a male or female is leased or loaned for breeding purposes the form of lease supplied by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation must be filled in and signed by the lessor and forwarded to the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation to be placed on record. The lessee will in all cases be considered the breeder of the progeny of leased or loaned females.

4 A duplicate certificate may be issued if the registered owner or his authorized agent files a statutory declaration on a form supplied by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation, showing in a satisfactory manner that the original is lost, destroyed or unobtainable.

REGISTRATION OF NAMES

1 STABLE NAMES - A breeder may register for his exclusive use a name to be used as a prefix in naming his animals. A particular name will be allowed to one person or partnership only and in registering such names, priority in use and application for registration shall be considered. Letters shall not be used as a prefix to a name. Names shall not contain more than thirty letter spaces or characters, including numeral affix. In the event of a change in the name of a partnership or company or if any party is taken into partnership, the name may be transferred upon application to the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation of the registered owner or his authorized representative. Likewise, transfer may be made from a deceased owner to his heir. A REGISTERED NAME may be transferred to another person or persons on the application of the person or persons in whose names it is registered. After the expiration of five (5) years, the registered name will be forfeited if it has not been used in identifying an animal by the registered owner.

PRIVATE BREEDING RECORDS

1 There shall be kept by each breeder a private record which shall contain full particulars of his breeding operations. This record shall at all times be open to the inspection of officials of this Association, officials of the Department of Agriculture for Canada and officials of the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation.

MEMBERSHIP

3.6 No member shall be entitled to any of the rights and privileges of the Association during any year until his annual fee for that year is paid. On March 31st in each year all members who paid for the preceding year but who have not paid for the then current year shall be removed from the membership roll. They may, however, elect to identify and transfer at non-members rate during this three months period. They may nevertheless again become members in the manner prescribed by this constitution.
